Tele-counseling Consent

TeleCounseling is providing therapy/counseling services using interactive audio and visual (video) electronic systems where the provider and the patient are not in the same physical location. The interactive electronic systems incorporate network and software security protocols to protect patient information and safeguard the data exchanged.

Requirements

A computer, laptop, or mobile phone with a webcam and microphone to video conference using a HIPAA compliant online company specializing in telemedicine. As with any medical procedure, there may be potential risks associated with the use of TeleCounseling. These risks include, but may not be limited to:

- Therapy conducted online uses technology and problems may occasionally occur with internet connectivity. Difficulties with hardware, software, equipment, and/or services supplied by a 3rd party may result in service interruptions. Any problems with internet availability or connectivity are outside the control of the practitioner, and makes no guarantee that such services will be available or work as expected. If something occurs to prevent or disrupt any scheduled appointment due to technical complications and the session cannot be completed via online video conferencing, the practitioner will call the patient back at the phone number provided on this form.
- Information transmitted may not be sufficient (e.g., poor resolution of video) to allow for appropriate medical decision making by the psychiatrist or therapist.
- The provider may not be able to provide treatment to the patient using interactive electronic equipment or provide for or arrange for emergency care that the patient may require, in cases of connection failure.
- Delays in evaluation and treatment may occur due to deficiencies or failures of the equipment.
- Although highly unlikely, security protocols can fail, causing a breach of privacy of confidential medical information.
- A lack of access to all of the information that might be available in a face-to-face visit, but not in a TeleCounseling session, may result in errors in provider judgment.

My Rights

- I understand that the laws that protect the privacy and confidentiality of medical information also apply to Telecounseling.
- I understand that the technology used by the provider is encrypted to prevent the unauthorized access to my private medical information.
- I have the right to withhold or withdraw my consent to the use of TeleCounseling during the course of my care at any time. I understand that my withdrawal of consent will not affect any future care or treatment.
- I understand that the provider has the right to withhold or withdraw his or her consent for the use of Telecounseling during the course of my care at any time.
- I understand that all the rules and regulations which apply to the therapy in-person also apply to TeleCounseling.
- I understand that the provider will not record any of our TeleCounseling sessions without written consent.
- I understand that the provider will not allow any other individual to listen to, view, or record my Telecounseling session without my express written permission.

My Responsibilities

- I agree to take full responsibility for the security of any communications or treatment information involved with my own computer and with my own physical location.
- I understand that I am solely responsible for maintaining the strict confidentiality of my user ID and password and I will not allow another person to use my user ID to access the Services. I also understand that I am responsible for using this technology in a secure and private location, so that others cannot hear my conversation.
- I understand that the company that the doctor has chosen to conduct the online appointment is an independent company specializing in HIPAA compliant telemedicine. My doctor has no responsibility for that company's operations or security of my protected health information. In addition, the company might send me emails or communication, such as appointment reminders. I understand that the provider is not responsible for this communication. If I am receiving any unwanted communication from the company, I will call/contact the company directly and address my concerns with them.
- I will not record any Telecounseling sessions without written consent from the provider. I will inform the provider if any other person can hear or see any part of our session before the session begins.
- I have read and understand all of the clinic policies, and that they apply to all telemedicine as well as in-person visits.
- I consent to paying fees that are the same as an in-office visit for the type and length of service provided, through the billing department.
- I understand that a TeleCounseling appointment is scheduled the same as an in-office appointment would be, and should I not be available for the appointment, or cancel it less than xxx business days in advance, there will be a charge for a missed appointment for the time my practitioner has reserved for the scheduled appointment.

Patient Consent to the Use of TeleCounseling

I have read and understand the information provided in the preceding pages regarding TeleCounseling. I have discussed this information with my provider and all my questions have been answered to my satisfaction. I hereby give my informed consent for the use of TeleCounseling in my medical care and authorize the provider to use TeleCounseling in the course of my diagnosis and treatment.

CONSENT FOR TREATMENT

Psychotherapy is a working cooperative relationship between you and your counselor. Each member of this cooperative relationship has certain responsibilities. Your counselor will contribute their knowledge, expertise, and clinical skills. You, as the client, have the responsibility to bring an attitude of collaboration and a commitment to the therapeutic process.

While there are no guarantees regarding the outcome of the treatment, your commitment may increase the likelihood of a satisfactory experience.

Fees and Appointments

Appointments are minutes in length and take place on a basis. Your counselor holds your specific hour for you each week. If you are unable to keep an appointment, please cancel as soon as possible. You will be responsible for payment of missed sessions. If you are able to reschedule your appointment within xxx working days, it will not count as a cancellation. We ask that you pay the receptionist prior to your session each week. We reserve the right to suspend therapy if services are rendered and not paid for after xxx sessions.

During your initial appointment you will be assigned a fee for your weekly sessions based on your ability to pay. Please discuss any concerns regarding your financial status with your counselor, especially if your financial situation should change or improve.

Confidentiality

Communication between you and your counselor is confidential. This means that your counselor will not discuss your case orally or in writing without your expressed written permission (please see the following section on "Training and Supervision").

Your counselor has an ethical and legal obligation to break confidentiality under the following circumstances:

- a. If there is a reason to believe there is an occurrence of child, elder, or dependent adult abuse or neglect.
- b. If there is reason to believe that you have serious intent to harm yourself, someone else, or property by a violent act you may commit.
- c. If you disclose that you knowingly develop, duplicate, print, download, stream, or access through any electronic or digital media or exchanges, a film, photograph, video in which a child is engaged in an act of obscene sexual conduct.
- d. If you introduce your emotional condition into a legal proceeding.
- e. If there is a court order for release of your records.

Availability and After-Hours Emergencies

Counselors check for voice mail messages during normal business hours. Messages left outside of normal hours of oper- ation will be picked up the next business day. If you have an emergency that needs immediate attention you may need to seek assistance at the nearest emergency services department.

Child Care Release

We do not provide childcare and are not responsible for children or adolescents left unsupervised in the waiting room. Minors must be picked up following their appointments on time. If you must leave your child in the waiting room during a session, it is your responsibility to provide appropriate supervision for that child. Children under the age of 10 may not be left without supervision in the waiting room.

Additional Rights and Responsibilities

In addition to your right to confidentiality, you have the right to end your counseling at any time, for whatever reason and without any obligation, with the exception of payment of fees for services already provided. You have the right to question any aspect of your treatment with your counselor.

You also have the right to expect that your counselor will maintain professional and ethical boundaries by not entering into other personal, financial, or professional relationships with you.

We reserve the right to discontinue counseling at any time including, but not limited to, a violation by you of this Consent for Treatment, a change or reevaluation of your therapeutic needs, our ability to address those needs, or other circumstances that lead us to conclude in its sole and absolute discretion that your counseling needs would be better served at another counseling facility. Under such circumstances, we will suggest an appropriate counselor(s) or counseling agency.

Your signature below indicates that you have read and understand this information and have received a copy of this consent form and give permission to us to provide counseling services and that this contract is binding for all future sessions you may have with this entity.
